DEBTOR'S APPLICATION TO EMPLOY ATTORNEY

TO THE HONORABLE D MICHAEL LYNN, US BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

COMES NOW Nuanchan Johnson, Debtor in the above-styled and numbered cause, and files this her Application to Employ Attorney and would respectfully show:

1. Debtor desires to hire below signed counsel (herein "Proposed Counsel") as co-counsel in regard to this Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceeding.
2. Debtor asserts it is necessary to employ Proposed Counsel to assist in the administration of this bankruptcy proceeding, including filing and amending bankruptcy schedules, statement of financial affairs, statement of intent, and further to assist in addressing issues specifically related to the automatic stay and real property interests of the Debtor, which will likely include adversary proceedings necessary to protect such interests.
3. Debtor desires that she be authorized to hire Proposed Counsel at a regular hourly rate based on time and standard billable charges to be approved by the Court, and for such compensation and reimbursement of expenses as is just.

4. Proposed Counsel is an attorney licensed in Texas, and is admitted to practice before this Court, with knowledge and experience in bankruptcy practice, and is qualified to render necessary legal services

5. Proposed Counsel is a disinterested person having no connection with the Debtor, the creditors, or other party in interest.

PRAYER

Debtor requests that she be authorized to employ Proposed Counsel to perform legal services in this matter and for such further relief as she may show herself justly entitled.

Signed: October 27, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Stephen W. Tiemann
